FARMHOUSE WITH TWO
THRIVING INDEPENDENT
GÎTES AND 1.5 HECTARES
OF PRIVATE PARKLA...

Ref : A19538NJD47

This charming, fully restored, former Armagnac estate (415 m²) was built in the early 19th century and lies on the fringes of the Parc Natural des Landes de Gascogne, one of the greatest expanses of forest in Western Europe and a haven for nature lovers.

DESCRIPTIF

With 10 bedrooms and 6 bathrooms, and in excellent condition throughout, there is still ample scope to develop further and the three properties could easily be reconfigured to your requirements. The main house and the first gîte, for example, could be combined to create a larger principle home and still provide a second independent guesthouse with its own gas central heating system. There are also two separate entrance gates and driveways for the main house and the two guesthouses.

One advantage of the current configuration is that both gîtes can be rented out simultaneously by extended families and friends, providing extra space and privacy.

There is fibre optic broadband (2GB) throughout the entire property.

Main House:

A private driveway leads to the main house where there is covered parking and a workshop.

There is also a covered outdoor terrace from the kitchen side.

From this door (one of three ground entrances) there is a beautifully fitted kitchen (18 m²) with beautiful, original tiled floors.

This leads to the dining room (19 m²) with a handsome wood-burning stove.

From here there is a living room (18.5 m²) with fireplace and wood burning stove.

There is a central hallway (13 m²), which has a wonderful wrought iron spiral staircase. This leads through to the utility room with the gas fired central heating system for the main house and the first gîte.

There is also underfloor heating in both. There is also a downstairs shower room (7.5 m²) with washbasin and
