Magnificent XVIII century castle, classified 'Monument Historique' and restored in the neo-classical style, situated in the Dordogne.

Occupying a privileged position, it benefits from a panoramic view of the valley and the village of Escoire (12km from Périgueux) - A unique

DESCRIPTIF

Magnificent restored XVIII neo-classical castle.

This castle will seduce you with its neo-classical architecture. Its beautiful volumes entirely renovated with taste and care offers a strong potential for professional activity.

Built on the first floor over a semi-buried basement, it offers a series of reception rooms or cellars.

Accessible on the ground floor, the reception rooms follow one another with charm.

On the first floor, there are 8 bedrooms in a row, each with its own bathroom and a studio.

On the 2nd floor, the attic can be entirely converted.

You will be able to enjoy the swimming pool 18*10, on spring water in a calm frame in the middle of the greenery.

Large professional industrial kitchen to renovate. It was used to prepare 250 meals.

The various outbuildings (janitor's houses, garages, cottages) let imagine multiple possibilities and a strong potential.

Do not hesitate to come and see this place which will not leave you indifferent..
