Ref : A26676JTO06

This sleek, contemporary Californienne-style villa has a spectacular panoramic 270-degree view that stretches from the Massif de l'Estérel, all across the Bay of Cannes and the Lérins Islands, along the snowcapped French alps and all the way up to Grasse. It is also equipped with a huge garage (92m2), making it ideal for classic car

The villa possesses an extraordinary degree of expansion/addition/construction flexibility, which is quite rare given that Côte d'Azur building/expansion permits are becoming increasingly difficult to obtain.

It measures in at 260 m2 of interior space with a total of 113 m2 of terraces (48 m2 on the top floor and 65 m2 on the ground floor). The villa sits on 2561 m2 of sloped land that is landscaped into three wide terraces, making the garden very usable.

The top floor is currently used as the living space, with living room (49m2) dining room / kitchen (24m2), 3 bedrooms (17m2, 14m2 and 14m2) and 2 bathrooms (as well as 48 m2 of terrace). The open plan main living area is equipped with breakaway sliding doors on two sides and opens on to the vast terrace, maximising natural light and blurring the distinction between "inside" and "outside". There is also a separate laundry room (10 m2) behind the villa with its own independent entrance.

The whole of the bottom floor is effectively the garage which can accommodate 6 or possibly even 7 cars depending on the configuration. The villa was designed and constructed from the beginning for the garage to be transformed into liveable surface area and is already equipped with 12 windows, an office, a toilet, a shower, radiators, as well as 65 m2 of terrace (also with sea views). This garage level affords the new owner the ultimate flexibility because it can be easily and inexpensively converted into liveable space (eith
