This chalet is the masterpiece of one of Val d'Iseres's most trusted and respected architects. Thoughtfully and carefully planned to make the most of the space and light using a perfect blend of local stone and old wood combined with cutting edge technologies.

DESCRIPTIF

This chalet is currently under construction and due for delivery in the summer of 2024.

There is a very detailed plan of fixtures, fittings and finishes, however it will be possible for the new owner to amend and choose certain elements.

If the property is rented then the TVA can be claimed back. Please contact us for more details.

A masterpiece which showcases talent of experienced architects combined with the best skilled tradespeople in the area. Set into the hillside, there is direct access to outside space in many areas which makes this chalet blend with the surroundings beautifully.

There are highly detailed plans and mood boards of every aspect of this exquisite chalet.

Master suite 33m with private terrace leading to outside hot tub area
3 additional ensuite bedrooms
5th room which could be a kids dorm or media room /home office
Open plan lounge with fire place, picture windows and balcony
Open plan kitchen diner with direct access to terrace and exterior dining area
Beautiful wellness area with pool and spa

The chalet is located in the peaceful hamlet of Le Cret which sits just on the edge of the Main Street of Val D'Iseres. It has a tranquil location and nestles on the fringe of the no build zone, so you can be assured of the sense of openness. Le Cret benefits from the sun long after it has disappeared in the centre of town.

This chalet really is the creme de la creme in terms of thoughtfulness and demand design. Even standing in the bu
