DESCRIPTIF

This property really is a nature lovers delight. If you enjoy walking, mountain biking or horse riding, this property is for you. It consists of 17 hectares of land which has not been touched by pesticides for many years. There is a combination of woods and pasture and the views are uninterrupted and of open countryside. The property feels very private and yet is not isolated as it has good transport links and is just 4km from two market towns with all amenities such as schools, banks etc. The original house is stone built but has been tastefully extended to give light, airy, open plan living. There are 3 bedrooms 13m², 13m², 18m², one on the ground floor, a dressing area 7m², a bathroom 6.5m², shower room 3m², and a separate wc 0.25m². There is also an office 24m², a large open plan sitting/dining/kitchen area of 50m² where you find the log burner and a glass roof with electric blinds. There is a cave or cellar. A large open plan airy space completes the living space with a second glass roof complete with electric blinds. This is currently used to display the owners' sculptures, 42m². Outside is a large building currently used as an art studio of about 75m² a garage. There are also 3 houses to renovate/finish. Two of these are in wood and are located on the private drive as you approach the house and the third is in brick. The property has fibre wi-fi, electricity (linky), mains water as well as a borehole for natural water. There is a fosse septique or individual sewage t
