DESCRIPTION

Nestled in a charming hamlet on the outskirts of Ussel, this magnificent manor house, built in 1860, exudes timeless elegance and historic charm.

A wrought iron gate opens to reveal the manor house to your left, its slate roof, large single-glazed windows, and white wooden shutters carefully preserved to honour its heritage. A balustrade guides you from the terrace down into the beautifully maintained gardens.

Stepping inside, the entrance hall welcomes you with high ceilings, abundant natural light, and exquisite period details—polished wooden floors, intricate plaster mouldings, rich wood panelling, and marble fireplaces that echo the grandeur of the past.

To the left, a living room invites relaxation, while to the right, a refined dining room leads seamlessly to a spacious kitchen and dining area, complete with an independent exterior entrance. A cellar beneath the kitchen provides ideal wine storage and houses the home's boiler. Adjacent to the kitchen, you'll find a convenient shower room and WC.

The first floor offers four generously sized bedrooms, one currently used as an office, alongside a luxurious marble-tiled bathroom. The second floor continues to impress, featuring five additional bedrooms and a playroom, providing ample space for family and guests.

Across the courtyard, an extraordinary converted barn serves as an unparalleled leisure retreat. This stunning space boasts a 15m x 5m swimming pool with a captivating waterfall, a Jacuzzi, a sauna, a stea...
