Ref : A05621

Dating from the 17th century, this exceptional château offers approximately 396 m² of refined living space and an outstanding lifestyle opportunity. Meticulously renovated by the current owners, the property has been restored to an exceptional standard, seamlessly blending authentic period features with contemporary comfort and

DESCRIPTION

The main residence is entered via a spectacular triple-height entrance hall, where an elegant stone staircase ascends to the bedroom levels on the second and third floors. From the entrance hall, a few steps lead to the independent apartment, which comprises a cosy living room with wood-burning stove, a fully fitted kitchen opening onto a south-facing terrace, and truly panoramic views—an exceptional setting for al fresco dining. The apartment also includes a double bedroom with en-suite shower room and is currently rented as a gîte, though it would make ideal private owner's accommodation. On the opposite side of the entrance hall are two large cellars housing the laundry facilities and a workshop. A further doorway leads to a magnificent stone-vaulted cellar with direct access to the street below. The first and second floors accommodate six beautifully presented en-suite bedrooms or suites, each enjoying stunning views and private bath or shower rooms. The interiors have been finished with understated yet elegant taste, enhancing the property's exposed stone walls, wooden beams, and traditional tiled floors. One of the first-floor suites offers direct access to the beautifully landscaped gravelled garden and pool area, planted with shrubs, flowers, and mature olive trees. The bespoke heated swimming pool is surrounded by private sun terraces, while a covered terrace provides a welcoming shaded area for dining and relaxation. The extensive garage, topped with solar pa...
