DESCRIPTIF

Magnificent 12th century Cluniac monastery fully renovated to a very high standard.

The property comprises two main buildings, first the main family house with 6/7 bedrooms (420 m²), three bathrooms, a large kitchen, two dining rooms, a library, an office, two lounges, a playroom for the children and a dressing room.

The second property adjoining the family house within a large courtyard is a former coach house (350 m²), beautifully restored, with a large wine cellar, a tower and a garage. The main part of this second property is open through two monumental glass doors, with a kitchen, toilet and bathroom, a dining room and a large entertainment area that can accommodate more than 50 people for meals or other...The second floor is an open space that offers great potential for entertainment activities, room for game and pool tables, dancing, TV/cinema and much more. All in all, this exceptional property offers fantastic potential to create a small hotel, gites or B&B and at the same time is a heavenly family home. Located in a beautiful village, but close to larger cities with easy access to the rest of France and the world: The property retains much of its history through careful and authentic restoration of a high quality.

One to fall in love with.

The house benefits from soft electric underfloor heating on the ground floor, with the rest of the house having a combination of two wood pellet fires and new generation electric radiators.

On the ground floor there is large en
