DESCRIPTIF

Set in a popular Minervois village in the heart of wine country, this large, character stone building oozes charm and the promise of idyllic life in the south of France.

Parts of this house date back more than a thousand years! Enter the spacious hallway with it's own atrium and fountain and take the medieval stone staircase spiralling up to six bedrooms on two upper floors until finally it arrives at a terrace atop the house with a stunning view of the surrounding village rooftops, vineyards and the Pyrenees in the distance. On the ground floor a large kitchen and two reception rooms lead to the most charming courtyard/garden with swimming pool and upper level terrace and summer kitchen accessed by a wrought iron circular stairway.

Located midway between Carcassonne and Narbonne with easy access to five airports, numerous train stations and both the A9 and A61 autoroutes, this is a convenient and well served location.

For outdoor enthusiasts, this region is a cyclist's paradise, with scenic routes awaiting exploration. Boating enthusiasts will appreciate the proximity to the canal du Midi, providing a gateway to leisurely days on the water.

Full of South of France charm, in a great village, easy access, lots to do and the rich history of the surrounding area - No wonder this house has become one of the most successful B and B's in the area.
