A Rare Find for Equestrian Professionals and Passionate Riders Alike

Tucked away in the heart of the Lot-et-Garonne, this remarkable property offers far more than just a home — it's a fully equipped, ready-to-run equestrian haven. Set within 8 hectares of land dedicated

DESCRIPTION

The Ultimate Equestrian Property – Where Horse Welfare Comes First

Tucked away at the end of a sweeping private drive, this traditional stone farmhouse with its impressive equestrian facilities is a haven for both horses and their humans. Now set within 8 hectares of dedicated equine terrain, the land has been thoughtfully refocused to prioritise horse welfare and training – with the option to purchase additional farmland if desired.

The Farmhouse – A Canvas for Your Vision

Offering 287m<sup>2</sup> of living space over two floors, the farmhouse is full of character and potential. The ground floor features a large open-plan living and dining area ideal for hosting, alongside a well-equipped kitchen with central island and wood-burning insert. A generous 40m<sup>2</sup> master suite includes a private office and wood burner, creating a cosy and practical retreat. Another en-suite bedroom opens onto a bright 43.5m<sup>2</sup> conservatory, perfect for unwinding after a long day.

Upstairs, six further bedrooms (some with exposed beams), a family bathroom, and separate WC provide ample space for family, guests, or staff accommodation. While the house is immediately habitable and benefits from double glazing, oil-fired central heating, and recent rewiring, it also holds enormous potential for bespoke interior renovation to suit your personal tastes or business needs.

Equestrian Facilities – Built for Serious Horse Management

The heart of this property lies in its extensive and purpose-built eques...
