This is an exquisite house, lovingly renovated and developed over a period of years. Behind its Iron gates lies a private and beautiful world evoking the dream of living the perfect south of france life. All the rooms are large, bright and beautifully proportioned. At the heart of the house is a new well thought out kitchen designed for

DESCRIPTIF

The house itself stands at the centre of the property entered through large iron gates which lead to a gravelled Mediterranean garden at the front. A driveway at the side of the house leads directly to the extremely private and delightful garden which itself is bordered by a large two story garage, numerous outbuildings and a magnificent swimming pool.

Under the shade of a friendly tree you enter the house through its lovely front door into a bright hallway off which lead all the reception rooms, the kitchen and the magnificent stairway up which lie four large bedrooms on the first floor and the huge open plan apartment with two further bedrooms and ensuite bathrooms on the second floor. This property lies towards the edge of the very popular village of Paraza, famous for its position on the Canal du Midi, its fine Chateau, its wine and its easy access to the Mediterranean and the beach, multiple airports, the TGV at Narbonne, and excellent road transport links.
