DESCRIPTION

The Domaine de Golf de Bigorre, set in 56 hectares of glorious mountain scenery, is a profitable and well-established golf club, hotel and restaurant/bar, custom-built between 2005-8.

All the construction and development to date has been carried out by the current owners. It has been done with considerable respect for the surrounding environment. The design of the buildings blends sympathetically and aesthetically with both the golf course landscape and the mountain scenery. Green watering is 90% self-sufficient via a man made reservoir and rainwater collection system including a pump house. Wildflower rewilding has been nurtured in several locations and energy efficiency optimised with photovoltaic panels. The Clubhouse Pic and Putt restaurant serves local "produits du terroir" cuisine and fine regional wines. Catering services are provided for weddings and other events.
