An Exceptional Domaine in the Lot Valley – Two Residences, Two Pools, and Endless Possibilities

In the heart of the vineyards, this rare estate offers a world of charm and opportunity. Behind its ancient gates lie two beautifully restored

DESCRIPTION

Tucked away in the very heart of the Lot Valley, this remarkable stone estate offers a rare combination of history, elegance, and opportunity. Behind its ancient gates lie two exquisitely renovated stone houses, together providing around 600 m² of living space, enhanced by a large workshop/garage and set within 8,468 m² of lush, private grounds.

This is a property that effortlessly bridges worlds: a refined family home or multi-generational retreat on the one hand, and on the other, an exciting foundation for a thriving hospitality business.

Gardens and Setting

The mature parkland is a tapestry of shady retreats, with century-old oaks, graceful olive trees, and fruit trees heavy with promise. Two separate entrances discreetly divide the main residence from the gîte, ensuring privacy and ease of use whether for family, guests, or paying clients.

At the heart of the courtyard, the owner's private pool and sun terrace create an intimate haven, while a second, covered 14m x 7m pool offers year-round enjoyment. Both properties are equipped with summer kitchens, the main house boasting an impressive outdoor dining space beside its interior kitchen – an entertainer's dream.

Natural springs on the land allow the pools to be replenished every fortnight without reliance on mains water, a gift as practical as it is rare. Terraces, landscaped walks, and a pétanque court complete this idyllic picture of French country life.
