This magnificent maison-de-maître is in a peaceful village not far from Pau, Lourdes and Nay. The village is within easy walking distance of the property and has a boulangerie, other small shops and schools.

Currently used as a wonderful second home, the maison-de-maître

DESCRIPTION

Built during the 18th century, this charming Béarnaise maison-de-maître of 315m² is in on the outskirts of a small village not far from Pau, Lourdes and Nay. Ski resorts in the Pyrénées are 40 - 60 minutes away; the coastal resorts of Biarritz, Hossegor and St-Jean-de-Luz are under two hours away.

Set in easy-to-maintain gardens of 3,244m², the property has a vast two-storey barn with an adjoining carport. If, however, you prefer to park your car inside the barn, the carport would be ideal to use as a summer kitchen and covered dining terrace. There is also ample flat land for a swimming pool (permission required), a barbecue area, a children's play area, a boules piste...

The front door of the maison-de-maître opens into an entrance hall with a traditional wooden staircase at the far end leading to the upper floors. To the left of the entrance hall is a dining room, which leads round to a cosy sitting room with a wood-burner.

To the right of the entrance hall is a delightful kitchen with a breakfast bar. There is also a huge stone fireplace and an informal dining area. Behind the kitchen is an "arrière-kitchen" area with a walk-in pantry, a shower room and a separate WC.

From the kitchen, a door opens into a splendid Garden Room of about 65m², which has glazed walls on the north and south façades. Doors open out to a north-facing terrace and a south-facing terrace - the perfect spots for enjoying sunny breakfasts, long, lazy lunches and romantic suppers!
