DESCRIPTIF

Behind a beautiful stone façade crowned by a grand arched wooden door lies a hidden gem: a 17th-century hôtel particulier fully restored with the utmost attention to detail, located in the heart of Lectoure, one of southwestern France's most enchanting towns, officially recognised as a Ville d'Art et d'Histoire.

This historic residence offers over 500 m² of refined living space, where heritage and contemporary comfort blend seamlessly. The interiors reveal original parquet floors, soaring ceilings, intricate mouldings, and elegant finishes throughout. The property features 12 rooms, including 4 expansive suites (27 to 37 m²) with en-suite bathrooms, 4 elegant reception rooms, a fully equipped 35 m² kitchen, and a private 40 m² bar — all served by a discreet lift connecting every floor.

The lower level hosts a spa, wine cellar, and additional rooms ready to be tailored to your needs. Outdoors, a landscaped garden and graceful swimming pool offer a serene retreat in the heart of town.

Lectoure's lifestyle is part of the dream: a vibrant yet peaceful town with cobbled streets, a lively gourmet market, art galleries, thermal baths, and cultural events year-round. It's a destination beloved by a discerning international clientele drawn to its authenticity, elegance, and southern charm.

Just 1h15 from Toulouse and 1h20 from its international airport, this rare property is ideal for a prestige residence or a high-end hospitality project. A refined invitation to
