This gorgeous mill property is in a pretty village in the Vallée d'Aspe and comprises a main house with two gallery bedrooms, three holiday cottages - one of which is a 16th-century mill - a barn and riverside grounds of about 2.5 acres. The wooded grounds, bordered by a river, are crossed by two millstreams - one of which passes beneath the mill

DESCRIPTIF

This delightful mill property is bursting with character and cachet - and the ancient mill itself dates back to the 1500s!

Lovingly restored and renovated, the property and its three holiday cottages are completely ready for the new owners to move into. Cottage 1 is adjacent to the main house; Cottage 2 has been created by converting the mill building, which is set away from the main house. There is also a millstream running beneath the mill, which is visible through a glass floor panel in the sitting room!

Cottage 3 is a little further away and is next to an unconverted barn, which is currently used as a garage, but could be used for creating further rental accommodation (permission required).

Although the property is close to the centre of the village, there is no passing traffic, guaranteeing complete peace and tranquillity. It is next to an ancient bridge, which is only accessible to pedestrians and cyclists.

The main house and the adjacent cottage form a U-shape around an internal courtyard with decorative fountain and overlooked by a traditional open gallery on the first floor.

The main house (approx. 100m²) comprises the internal courtyard, a south-facing dining terrace, a sitting room and a kitchen with a dining area. From the internal courtyard, steps lead up to the charming gallery and two bedrooms, each with an en suite shower room. The bedrooms could be used for accommodating Bed and Breakfast guests.

The holiday cottage adjacent to the main house is a
