DESCRIPTIF

The village of Labécède-Lauragais is perched among the hills of the Montagne Noire. Just a short distance from the home of Cassoulet, Castelnaudary and the ever-popular tourist site of Carcassonne. The chateau is at the heart of the village, surrounded by its own terrace, gravel drive and gardens. Huge electronic metal gates open to reveal a gravel drive leading to the main entrance of the chateau. There is an elevated garden area, with fruit trees and flowers, an ideal spot to unwind in the shade on a summer's day.

A suitably impressive hallway welcomes you into the building with an even more opulent staircase and hallway leading upstairs and into the main living area. A generous living room with three sets of doors onto the terrace would be the perfect spot to wind away the evening with friends. The terrace has space for dining and entertaining or simply enjoying the views. An adjacent living and dining room has a recently installed wood burner, perfect for a cosy evening in winter. A modern kitchen has access to the dining room and onto an additional living space that could be used as a formal dining room, with a colourful stained glass feature window. The ground floor also includes a large office space, an additional room that could serve as an office/library or bedroom, a downstairs toilet and two access points to the lower floors as well as the tower.

Climbing up the impressive staircase with light streaming through the stained-glass window you arrive on the fi
