17th-century watermill on 6 ha of land with 11 bedrooms, indoor pool, spa, two towers, river and outbuildings. A magical property near Lauzerte.

DESCRIPTIF

Just a few minutes from the medieval village of Lauzerte, officially listed as one of France's Most Beautiful Villages, this exceptional watermill dating back to the 17th and 18th centuries is full of charm and history.

Set in a peaceful and preserved natural environment, the property spans over 6 hectares of lush meadows, woodland and riverbank, offering a truly tranquil and picturesque setting. A river gently runs alongside the building, adding a touch of serenity to the surroundings.

The main house, built in local limestone, showcases timeless character and noble architecture. Framed by two elegant towers with traditional "poivrière" roofs, the façade features arched doorways, wooden shutters, and a covered gallery at the rear, perfect for enjoying the outdoors in all seasons. The tiled roofs blend harmoniously into the landscape.

The property includes:

11 bedrooms, including 6 high-end suites with private bathrooms,

5 spacious and bright living rooms, ideal for family life or entertaining,

A dedicated wellness area housed in an outbuilding, with an indoor heated swimming pool, spa, and relaxation spaces,

Several stone cellars, ideal for wine storage, workshops or creative spaces,

An independent annex, ready to be converted to suit your project: guest accommodation, holiday rental, or home office.

This unique property is a rare find, perfect for lovers of nature, heritage, and tranquility. Whether you're seeking a main residence full of character, a peac
