Exceptional Anglo-Norman residence of 220m² overlooking the Oise valley with breathtaking panoramic views. Nestled within classified grounds of 7,750m², fully enclosed and completely private, this property offers absolute intimacy in the heart of a meticulously maintained green sanctuary.

DESCRIPTION

Exceptional Property in the Heart of the Oise Valley

Architecture and Living Spaces

This remarkable Anglo-Norman character residence majestically overlooks the valley from its suspended garden, offering a breathtaking panoramic perspective of the village and its verdant surroundings. Spanning 220m², it harmoniously unfolds its 8 rooms across three thoughtfully designed levels that blend modern comfort with architectural authenticity.

The ground floor opens onto an elegant entrance hall leading to a cathedral-style living room of 38m² with exceptional volumes - over 4 meters ceiling height - bathed in natural light. The kitchen, cleverly designed to open onto the dining room, encourages family conviviality. Guest toilets complete this reception level.

The principal floor accommodates three spacious bedrooms, two shower rooms with WC, and a study ideal for remote working. The second floor reveals two additional bedrooms accompanied by a complete bathroom, offering flexible arrangements according to family needs.

The basement, far from being mere storage space, houses three functional rooms including an equipped gym, transforming every square meter into an asset.

Technical Features and Authenticity

Mindful of preserving original charm while integrating contemporary comfort, this residence benefits from comprehensive double glazing. Only the living room's original window frames have been carefully preserved, demonstrating respect for architectural heritage and guaranteeing the ...
