Val d'Isère is one of the most prestigious and in-demand ski resorts in the French Alps, offering a rare combination of altitude, charm, and consistent snow conditions. Situated at 1,850 meters, with access to the vast Tignes-Val d'Isère ski area (formerly Espace Killy), it boasts over 300 km of slopes and one of the longest winter seasons in Europe, running from early December to early May. This makes it particularly attractive to both lifestyle buyers and investors seeking reliable rental returns.

Property in Val d'Isère commands some of the highest prices in the Alps. Prices typically range from €18,000 to over €42 000 per square metre for prime locations, and can climb significantly higher for rare, piste-side chalets or new-build luxury apartments. The resort is characterised...
