This Parisian condominium stands out for its modernity and originality in the heart of Paris's 7th arrondissement.

Jean Ginsberg, the designer, is one of the rare architects to call on avant-garde artists. Vasarely collaborated with him to create a major mosaic composition for the building, visible from the street to passers-by, which appeals to his sensibility and admiration.

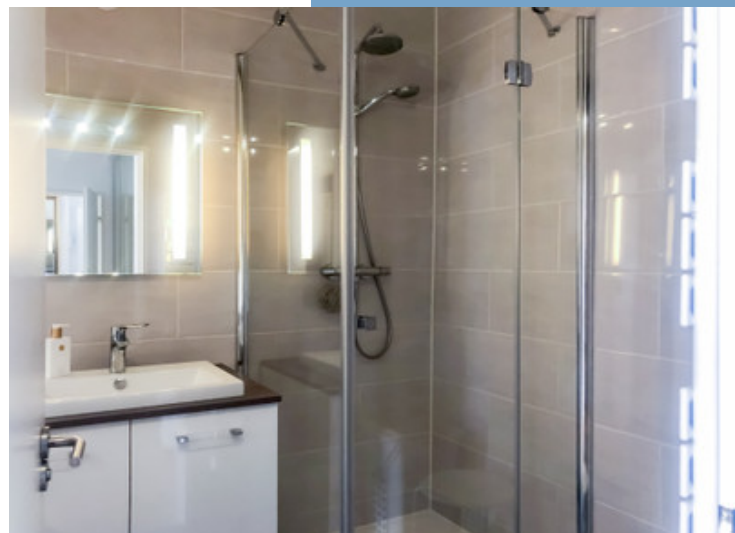

Part of one of the French capital's most chic and prestigious districts, it embodies the elegance of the Left Bank, with a peaceful residential atmosphere. It's a highly sought-after area, with flats of a very high standard, often offering stunning views over the jewels of the capital.
