This elegant and expansive Maison de Maître offers 7 bedrooms and superb potential for multi-generational living and is currently operating an established gîte business. The property includes an adjoining barn, a well-maintained pool, and a beautifully planted garden and meadow sitting on a 1-hectare plot with private river frontage to the river L'Isle.

DESCRIPTION

This beautifully presented Maison de Maître offers a total of 7 bedrooms and exceptional flexibility. It can function as a spacious family home or be easily divided into a 4-bedroom main residence with a separate, fully equipped 3-bedroom gîte – perfect for hosting guests, running a holiday rental, or accommodating extended family.

Brimming with original character and charm, dating back to the 1800s, the property also features large reception rooms, high ceilings, and period details throughout. Whether you're looking for a permanent residence with income potential, or a multi-generational retreat, this property adapts to your lifestyle.

The property is equipped with a combination of oil central heating and electric radiators.
