Surrounded by gardens and trees and overlooking the valley of the Ariège and the Pyrenees beyond, this property is beautifully situated just outside Pamiers. Secure gates lead into a short drive and spacious parking area next to the main house. There is access through a main entrance door into a generous hallway, perfect for storing shoes and coats. The main living area is bright and spacious, with double height ceilings and doors straight out onto the terrace, ideal for blending indoor and outdoor living at any time of year. Double doors lead through to a modern kitchen and living area with a large central island and plenty of work surface for any keen cooks. Behind the main living space is another room that has an independent entrance and is currently used as a games room but could serve as a garage or for storage.

There are two first floor areas at either end of the house, perfect to maintain privacy for guests or for older children. The master suite has beautiful views and a generous bathroom.
