DESCRIPTIF

Step inside this stunning 388m<sup>2</sup> historical home, owned by the same family since the early 20th century—making this a rare and once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

Set on nearly 3 hectares at the foot of Mont Veyrier in Annecy Le-Vieux, it's accessed via a secluded, tree-lined path and offers panoramic views of Lake Annecy and the city.

Inside, historical charm abounds. The grand entryway features terrazzo tile and well maintained hardwood floors leading to a spacious terrace overlooking Annecy.

The ground floor includes a grand south-facing living room with chevron hardwood floors, crown moldings, and 3.3m (11-foot) ceilings; a formal dining room with Versailles-parquet floors and six-foot windows; a kitchen, office, and multi-purpose utility room.

The top two floors each offer five spacious bedrooms, along with an independent WC and bathroom—ideal for comfortable family living or guest accommodations. Large windows throughout offer natural light and picturesque mountain and lake views.

This house also offers a large cellar with ample space for storage, hosting events, or wine tasting.

Perfect for someone dreaming of opening a bed and breakfast, creating a horse farm, or simply restoring and enjoying it as a private residence, this home offers space, character, and endless potential.
