In the heart of the village of Cergy, just 30 minutes from Paris, this elegant 2,330 sq ft mansion, built in 1850 and set in a 4,750 sq ft wooded garden, offers an elegant and welcoming living environment.

As soon as you enter, with its Belgian black marble and Saumur stone,

DESCRIPTION

In the park, you will find the Hunting Lodge, dating from the same period, where Prince Murat's entourage used to gather. Its interior, with its original wood paneling and wooden tile roof, adds to the charm of this veritable gem.

- Transportation: The property is well connected. You have easy access to the RER A thanks to several nearby stations: Cergy–Préfecture, Cergy–Saint-Christophe, Cergy–Le Haut. These stations allow you to reach Paris in less than an hour.
- Local shops and services: A few minutes away, you will find all the essential amenities: bakeries, pharmacies, supermarkets, banks, and restaurants.
- Major shopping centers: Les Trois Fontaines shopping center, one of the largest in the city with over 150 stores (fashion, home goods, appliances, etc.), as well as national chains (FNAC, Auchan, etc.), is located nearby.
- Living environment: The area is residential, quiet, with beautiful green spaces.

Cergy Village, the historic district of the city of Cergy, has a warm and preserved atmosphere. With its picturesque streets, old stone buildings, and lively little squares, this neighborhood has retained all the charm of a village. It is home to local shops, friendly restaurants, a market renowned for its fresh produce, and several schools and public services.

A true living space, Cergy Village combines tradition and modernity, offering a sought-after residential setting where life is good, while remaining perfectly connected to the rest of th...
