Combine an idyllic country lifestyle with a range of income opportunities. Designed for large family or intergenerational living, with home-working and/or chambre d'hote or gite activity in mind. Plenty of bathrooms and inviting spaces for people to pass the time indoors and out. The grounds include a large, in-ground, heated pool, small

DESCRIPTION

Drive in through the double gates to ample secure parking. Three substantial outbuildings shield the main house from view.

Enter through the ancient front door to discover a broad hallway (17 m²).

To the left, the spacious kitchen with fitted cabinets, range-style dual-fuel cooker and a large central island (free-standing). Tiled floor. Exposed beams painted white. Pantry cupboard under the stairs. (27 m²)

Through the kitchen, further to a broad hallway running along the rear of the house, giving access to a shower room with laundry area at one end (10 m²), a spacious cloakroom at the other (10 m²), and the large living room (45 m²).

This comfortable reception room, with its exposed beams, polished solid oak flooring, modern and efficient wood-burning stove and dual aspect is a delightful space. One glass door gives access to the south-facing patio and garden at the side of the house, French windows open to the front, with its semi-courtyard and ancient olive tree.

From the front door again, turn right into another spacious hallway (22 m²) with access to a large larder and the utility room (7 m²) housing the gas central heating and hot water boiler and the pool equipment.

Beyond this is a second reception/dining room with its own wood-burning stove set in a large raised stone fireplace, windows to the front and French windows to the poolside and barbeque area to the rear (40 m²). This is another large and comfortable space, ideal as a dining room with office are...
