Exceptional Country Estate near Villebois-Lavalette, Charente

Two Renovated Stone Houses • Extensive Traditional Outbuildings •
Set in 41 Hectares of Pasture, Woodland & Parkland

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises a beautifully restored Maison de Maître and a charming secondary stone house, together forming an elegant and versatile country estate. Retaining a wealth of original features — exposed beams, stone fireplaces and traditional floor tiles — both houses combine authentic character with modern comfort.

The second residence currently operates as a successful rental property, providing an immediate income stream or flexible guest accommodation.

Accommodation

Maison de Maître: Dates back to 1788 and enlarged in 1891. Generous reception rooms, farmhouse kitchen, several bedrooms and bathrooms, all finished to a high standard while preserving period details.
