DESCRIPTION

Located within a brand new residence, this south-facing three-bedroom apartment has been thoughtfully designed to provide a comfortable, practical, and refined living environment in a mountain setting.

From the moment you enter, the layout feels intuitive and easy to live in. The apartment opens onto a generous central living area that seamlessly combines the kitchen, dining, and lounge spaces in a well-balanced open-plan arrangement. This configuration creates a natural flow and lends itself perfectly to shared moments, whether family meals, evenings with friends, or quiet relaxation after a day outdoors.

Thanks to its south-facing orientation, the apartment benefits from abundant natural light throughout the day. This enhances the sense of space and creates a warm, welcoming atmosphere, even during the winter months. The living area is both functional and comfortable, offering ample room to relax without feeling oversized or impractical.

The entrance leads into a bright corridor, with a private sauna on the right, adding a genuine wellness element to the property. Adjacent is a spacious bedroom featuring two bunk beds above a large double bed, allowing it to comfortably accommodate family members and guests. This room also offers excellent flexibility and can easily be adapted for alternative uses such as a children's room, home office, or occasional guest suite. This versatility makes the apartment suitable for a wide range of lifestyles, from year-round living to hol...
