Just 40 minutes from Nice Côte d'Azur Airport, this fully renovated stone house is set within a 1.6-hectare wooded estate, offering peace, privacy, and security. From the entrance, a private driveway lined with lanterns leads to the main villa, gradually revealing its imposing presence.

DESCRIPTION

A rare gem in the hills behind Cannes, offering charm, authenticity, and exceptional views of the surrounding hills and the Mediterranean Sea. Just 40 minutes from Nice Côte d'Azur Airport, this fully renovated stone house is set within a private wooded estate of approximately 1.6 hectares, providing absolute calm, complete privacy, and a secure living environment. From the entrance, fully enclosed and secured, a private driveway lined with illuminated lanterns winds through the landscaped park and leads to the main villa. The arrival is both intimate and spectacular, gradually revealing a commanding residence perfectly integrated into its natural surroundings.

Built in 1985 and fully renovated in 2025, the villa offers approximately 300 m² of living space. Its stone architecture combines traditional charm with modern comfort, creating a warm and elegant living environment.

From the main living areas, the panoramic views of the surrounding hills are simply exceptional, with a glimpse of the Mediterranean on the horizon. Natural light floods the entire home, highlighting the noble materials and the high-quality recent renovations.

The reception areas, totaling approximately 83 m², are designed to host family and friends with elegance and comfort. Large bay windows allow a seamless connection to the terraces and surrounding nature, creating perfect harmony between indoors and outdoors. These spaces also offer the new owner the possibility to project their own vision an...
