DESCRIPTION

Located at an altitude of 1,500 metres and overlooking the charming village of Champagny-en-Vanoise, the Champagny-le-Haut plateau is a true delight for lovers of unspoilt Alpine landscapes.

With its proximity to Courchevel and its direct connection to la Plagne on one side and being one of the major access points for the famous Vanoise National Park on the other, the village boasts a year-round attraction that sets it apart from many of the big ski stations in its vicinity.

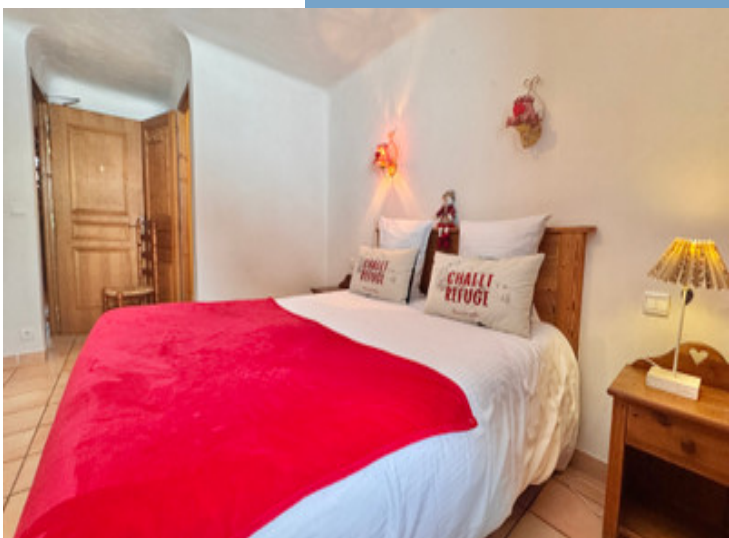

The chalet has 11 bedrooms, each with its own shower room, making it perfectly suited for hosting groups or operating as a hospitality business. A dedicated wellness area includes a sauna, shower room with WC, & a relaxation lounge with direct outdoor access.

The heart of the chalet is an impressive 70 m² dining & living area with an open stone fireplace & authentic vaulted ceilings as well as a large, professional kitchen. The opening onto a sunny terrace offers breathtaking, unobstructed mountain views, including a picturesque waterfall, lush pastures and maybe an ibex or two.

Located at an altitude of 1,500 metres and overlooking the charming village of Champagny-en-Vanoise, the Champagny-le-Haut plateau is a true delight for lovers of unspoilt Alpine landscapes.
Close to the main village yet wonderfully secluded, the Champagny-le-Haut valley combines a spectacular natural setting, characteristic of glacial valleys, with a landscape shaped by generations of human activity and adaptation .
