DESCRIPTION

Luxury Maison de Maître with Gîte & Boutique Hospitality Potential
Trans-la-Forêt, Brittany – Near Mont-Saint-Michel

Accessed via a private drive, this elegant wisteria-clad Maison de Maître offers refined country living in one of Brittany's most sought-after rural settings. Surrounded by approximately 7,500 m² of landscaped grounds with a private natural pond, shaded terraces and tranquil garden "rooms," the property combines timeless French character with modern comfort — an ideal lifestyle retreat with immediate income potential.

The main residence, extending to approximately 270 m², has been carefully restored, blending original architectural features with bespoke oak joinery, quality finishes and underfloor heating throughout the ground floor. The home is designed for both relaxed living and welcoming guests, with four beautifully appointed en-suite bedrooms that lend themselves perfectly to boutique bed-and-breakfast use.

Entering via the spacious kitchen with sitting area, a wood-burning stove creates a warm and inviting atmosphere for cozy evenings. Direct access leads to the rear gardens and terraces. Beyond, the main salon and dining room showcase the historic charm of the property, centered around a striking fireplace with wood burner — a natural gathering space for entertaining.

An original wooden staircase leads to the first-floor landing serving two generous suites. The principal bedroom overlooks the landscaped garden and private pond, fea...
