DESCRIPTION

Located just 5 minutes from Saint-Émilion and 15 minutes from Libourne, this elegant stone property offers an ideal setting for those seeking a spacious family home or a welcoming holiday retreat in one of the most desirable areas of south-west France.

With approximately 258 m² of living space, the house has been designed to bring people together while offering flexibility and comfort. The generous living room provides a warm and inviting space for family gatherings, while the large kitchen naturally becomes the heart of the home. A ground floor bedroom, together with a shower room on the same level, allows for practical and comfortable day-to-day living or welcoming guests with ease.

Upstairs, four further bedrooms and a large games room and/or sports room create a relaxed and versatile environment, ideal for children, visiting family or entertaining. The property is beautifully decorated throughout using quality materials, creating a welcoming and refined atmosphere.

Outside, the lifestyle truly comes into its own. The 2,057 m² garden is ideal for long summer days, with a terrace for outdoor dining, a summer kitchen for entertaining (36.90 m²), and plenty of space to enjoy with family and friends. The garden is fully piscinable, offering the opportunity to create a pool and further enhance its appeal as a holiday home. An attached garage (40 m²) and covered wood storage add practicality.

The location completes the picture, combining easy access to local amenities w...
