Charming estate with main house (180 m²) and guest accommodations (110 m²) on 3,000 m² of land, operating as a successful Bed & Breakfast just steps from the picturesque village of Luzech in the renowned Cahors wine region.

DESCRIPTION

Tucked away among the rolling vineyards of the Lot Valley, this charming estate offers a rare opportunity to acquire a fully operational hospitality business in one of Southwest France's most desirable settings. The property sits on approximately 3,000 m² of land and comprises a characterful main residence (around 180 m²) alongside attractive outbuildings (approximately 110 m²), currently configured as independent guest studios and rooms.

Each guest unit benefits from its own private entrance and terrace, allowing visitors to enjoy both privacy and comfort while taking in sweeping views over the surrounding hills, vineyards, and the medieval skyline of nearby Luzech.

The location strikes a perfect balance between tranquility and accessibility. The lively village of Luzech is just a short walk away, offering essential amenities including restaurants, a bakery, a small supermarket, and a weekly local market. A riverside leisure area with swimming opportunities lies just minutes away, complemented by a large outdoor pool open during the summer season.

The surrounding region is a haven for outdoor enthusiasts. A network of walking and cycling routes begins directly from the property, ranging from gentle countryside paths to more challenging trails. The well-known Camino de Santiago passes through the area, attracting international visitors throughout the year, while scenic cycling routes wind through the vineyards of the Lot Valley.

Ideally positioned for tourism, the pr...
