Steeped in history and prestige, this renowned thoroughbred stud is one of the oldest and most distinguished breeding establishments in France. Currently managed by the fifth generation of one of the country's oldest breeding dynasties, it offers a rare opportunity to acquire an estate of exceptional heritage and reputation.

DESCRIPTION

Approached via a private driveway, this secluded country estate offers exceptional privacy and timeless appeal. At its heart is a charming part-timbered manor house, rich in character and period features.

The principal reception room is a magnificent space, featuring an impressive fireplace, exposed beams, original tiled flooring, and a beautiful oak staircase rising to the first floor. An elegant formal dining room, also showcasing exposed beams, provides the perfect setting for entertaining. An inner hallway leads to a second staircase and a convenient cloakroom.

The spacious dining kitchen is thoughtfully appointed with a range of modern fitted units, while retaining its traditional charm with a substantial open fireplace, creating a warm and inviting family hub.

The first floor offers a superb principal bedroom enjoying stunning countryside views, fitted wardrobes, and an en-suite bathroom. Four further well-proportioned bedrooms are served by a family bathroom.

The second floor provides a versatile suite of rooms comprising a generous landing area, two additional bedrooms, a bathroom, a former kitchen, and extensive attic space. This level offers excellent potential for guest accommodation or independent living for a family member.

The house is surrounded by a mature private gardens and to the rear, a small lake.

Cottage;

Hidden behind the main house is a single storey cottage comprising a generous size sitting room 23m² with door to private garden area, bedroom 2...
