DESCRIPTION

Nestled in the rolling hills of the Mâconnais countryside, this rare property offers an exceptional lifestyle. Tastefully renovated with high end finishes using premium materials this Bourgeois Manor house is distinguished by its timeless charm and unique setting. Lovingly restored with taste by its current owners as a luxury retreat for relaxed family living and entertaining.

This bright and spacious property is arranged to offer every comfort both inside and out. The modern kitchen-dining room is spacious and comfortable, including a large back kitchen and access to the courtyard for outdoor entertaining. The huge double living room is bathed in natural light; it has a beautiful central feature wood burner inviting comfort and warmth over the colder months. The 7 generous and bright bedrooms each have their own bathroom and WC, guaranteeing comfort and privacy for each of the occupants. At the back of the property the landscaping enhances the view across the lawns and towards the luxurious swimming pool and deck leading towards the open countryside beyond. There is plenty of room for relaxed outdoor living with the pool house and terraces for enjoying the views. Continuing outside there is a natural well, a raised bed vegetable garden, a pond and a gazebo. There is an annex that has been arranged as an independent studio apartment and a large garden store.

Energy Performance Diagnosis (DPE) indicates a class C, highlighting good insulation, energy efficiency.
