An established and highly regarded hotel, restaurant and events business set within attractive grounds in the Saumur area of the Loire Valley. Predominantly housed in lovely period buildings combining character and modern comfort, the property offers quality accommodation, refined dining and versatile facilities for business and

DESCRIPTION

Set within approximately 3.5 hectares of grounds, the property is predominantly composed of historic buildings full of character, complemented by a small number of more contemporary buildings providing additional accommodation and facilities.

The established hotel offers a range of comfortable guest rooms and suites, including some more unusual accommodation, and benefits from a 3-star classification and recognised quality credentials.

The restaurant provides a welcoming setting for both hotel guests and local clientele, with professional kitchen facilities and outdoor dining. The cuisine focuses on fresh, regional produce and carefully prepared dishes.

The property also offers versatile facilities for business and private events, including seminars, conferences, weddings, celebrations and other group occasions.

A modern private residence is included within the property, together with a heated outdoor swimming pool, parking, landscaped grounds and a small lake.

The business benefits from a diverse clientele, combining tourism, business travel and private events. Its location provides easy access to Saumur and the wider Loire Valley, with its rich heritage, vineyards, gastronomy and cultural attractions. The combination of accommodation, restaurant and event activities provides several complementary revenue streams and offers scope for further development.

The sale comprises both the property and the operating business. Further financial and commercial information, toge...
